Sicilian Artist House/ Dinner at Local Restaurant

Step into a world of Sicilian artistry and folklore with an exclusive visit to the home-studio of Agatino "Tino" Giammona, an eccentric and talented artist whose creations capture the essence of Sicilian Baroque. Nestled in a charming street in the historic center of Taormina, Tino's atelier is a treasure trove of local tradition and craftsmanship. Every inch of his home is filled with handcrafted straw bags, vibrant paintings, votive decorations and intricate objects inspired by Sicilian carts and puppets. With a mix of sacred and profane symbols, his space is a colorful homage to Sicily's timeless past.

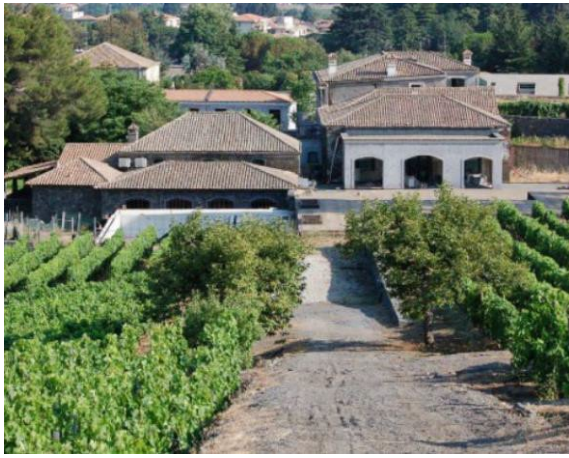

This evening, Tino will personally welcome you into his enchanting world. Explore his one-of-a-kind studio, witness his creative process and immerse yourself in the rich artistry of Sicily. Then, unleash your own creativity by decorating a miniature "coffe" bag—Sicilian straw bags once used for olive harvesting—with playful wooden pompoms and bright colors.

Cap off this artistic adventure with a Prosecco toast before heading to a nearby local restaurant for a delightful dinner. It's an evening of creativity, culture and celebration that will leave you inspired!

Mount Etna Experiences

Mount Etna offers a unique chance to experience one of the world's most active volcanoes with landscapes shaped by lava flows, craters and rugged terrain. You will have the opportunity to choose how you want to take in the stunning views of Sicily and the Mediterranean. This UNESCO World Heritage site is perfect for nature lovers, adventure seekers and anyone captivated by volcanic beauty.

Customize your day with these options:

- Unimog: Ascend to 8,800 feet with a volcanologist guide for views of ancient craters and fresh lava flows.
- Hike: Take a two-hour, medium-difficulty hike to 5,500 feet (500-foot elevation gain hike), exploring Monte Nero's craters and 2002 eruption remnants.
- Jeep Tour: Ride through trails with an expert guide to see the 2002 lava flow, Sartorius Mountains and panoramic coastal views.
- E-Biking: Join a guided, two-hour e-bike tour through ancient lava fields and lush forests, revealing new sights along the way.
- Quad Tour: Begin in Ragabo forest and ride with a guide through black lava fields and dense forests, stopping at scenic viewpoints.

Optional Add-On: End your adventure with a traditional Sicilian lunch and Etna wines at a winery on the volcano's slopes or opt to return directly to the hotel.

Day Offered: Sunday, April 6

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 1:30 or 4 p.m.

Activity Duration: 5 hours without winery (1:30 p.m. return time)
7.5 hours with winery stop (4 p.m. return time)

Transfer Time: 1 hour, 15 minutes

Attire & Items to Bring: Layered clothing, a windproof jacket, hat, scarf, closed-toed shoes.

Loved By: Adventure Seekers

Inclusions: Guided tour, all necessary equipment, transportation, beverages, lunch (if selected), gratuities, English speaking guide.

Special Remarks:

Operation of the activity is subject to weather/volcano conditions. Due to high altitudes, this tour is not recommended for people suffering from high blood pressure. Climbing is not advisable for pregnant women, asthmatics and people with breathing, cardiac and joint problems.

Mount Etna 4x4 Unimog Tour with Lunch Option at Palmento Costanzo Winery

This unforgettable tour begins with transfer from the hotel to the northern slope of Etna. At the Piano Provenzana cableway station, approximately 6,000 feet above sea level, hop aboard UNIMOG vehicles for an exhilarating ascent to the upper regions of the volcano, reaching an altitude of about 8,800 feet—close to the site of the most recent crater.

Accompanied by an official volcanologist guide, embark on a short panoramic walk in the craters' vicinity, leading you to stunning viewpoints that showcase ancient craters and fresh lava flows. Your journey culminates at the Volcanological Observatory perched at an impressive 9,200 feet. There, you can marvel at the magnificent landscape and enjoy breathtaking views of the top crater and the coastline stretching from Taormina to Catania.

Optional add-on: After soaking in the unique and fascinating scenery, we'll make our way to a charming winery nestled on the slopes of the volcano where you'll indulge in a traditional Sicilian lunch paired with exquisite Etna wines. This is a chance to savor the flavors of the region while surrounded by the breathtaking beauty of one of nature's most magnificent wonders. Join us for an adventure that combines stunning landscapes, fascinating geology and delectable Sicilian cuisine!

Mount Etna Hiking Trail Tour with Lunch Option at Palmento Costanzo Winery

Your adventure begins with a scenic transfer to the Provenzana plain in Linguaglossa where you'll embark on a captivating two-hour hike along a medium-difficulty trail. Ascend the northern slope at an elevation of 5,000 to 5,500 feet, immersing yourself in the wild beauty of this extraordinary terrain.

As you navigate the stunning path of Monte Nero, prepare to be amazed by the Bottoniera, known as “the perfect eruption.” This striking lunar landscape features a series of craters that showcase both the wonder and devastation of volcanic activity. Witness the remnants of the 2002 eruptions that reshaped the ski resort of Piano Provenzana and left their mark on nearby villages. You'll be enchanted by the dramatic contrast of lush pine and beech forests against the stark black lava fields.

Optional add-on: After an exhilarating day of trekking, we'll take you to a charming winery on the slopes of the volcano where you can indulge in a delightful Sicilian lunch paired with exceptional Etna wines. This unforgettable experience offers a perfect blend of natural beauty, rich history and exquisite flavors—an adventure that will linger in your memories long after the journey ends!

Mount Etna Quad Tour with Lunch Option at Palmento Costanzo Winery

Get ready for an adrenaline-fueled adventure as we whisk you away from the hotel to the northern slopes of Mount Etna! Our journey begins with a short transfer by minivan to a cozy mountain hut nestled in the stunning Ragabo forest – part of the renowned Mount Etna National Park.

After a brief quad-driving orientation, it's time to hop on your quad and put on your helmet for an exhilarating ride! Each quad accommodates a driver and a passenger so you can share the excitement as you follow our experienced guide through this incredible landscape.

As you navigate the slopes of the iconic volcano, you'll traverse black lava fields and petrified rivers, immersing yourself in the lunar-like terrain. Feel the thrill of exploring dense forests and untouched nature all while discovering the unique beauty that this park has to offer. Along the way, we'll make a couple of stops at key points of interest to fully appreciate the stunning surroundings.

Optional add-on: After your exhilarating ride, head to a charming winery on the slopes of the volcano for a Sicilian lunch perfectly paired with some of the finest Etna wines. Don't miss this unique opportunity to blend adventure with the rich flavors of Sicily!

Cooking Class and Lunch in Grandma's Kitchen at Cucina de Sole

Discover Sicily through its rich culinary traditions with a unique cooking experience at Cucina Del Sole, located on the sun-soaked slopes of Mount Etna, just outside Catania. Surrounded by olive groves, citrus orchards, and vineyards producing the renowned DOC wines of Etna, this stunning setting offers the perfect introduction to Sicily's flavors and ingredients.

Hosted by gastronomy journalist Monica Consoli in her charming 18th-century Sicilian home, this hands-on class takes place in the same cozy kitchen where Monica's grandmother mastered traditional Sicilian cooking. Over the course of three hours, you'll learn to prepare classic Sicilian dishes with a focus on fresh pasta, fish and vegetable recipes.

Following the class, enjoy an aperitif in the fragrant garden, filled with citrus trees and jasmine. Then, savor the fruits of your labor during a final dinner, where you'll taste the dishes you've created. This unforgettable experience combines history, culture and the vibrant flavors of Sicily into a culinary adventure like no other.
